The Special Children are our main focus and our programs include the formal schools from 1st to 10th grade, music teaching classes, educational seminars for their families and assistance during the disasters.

SAF celebrates most of the international events related to women and children, to continue Parallel to these great ladies Balques Edhi has also a passion to serve the humanity. As the mother’s love is instinctual and unconditional for her children.

This ceremony was named as “Mother of the Nation 2011” and we have presented this award to “Benazir Bhutto Shaheed” and 7 – top ladies of Pakistan were awarded

In the continuity of this ceremony, a National Anthem was played and the introduction of guest was announced there. To pay regards to “Benazir Bhutto Shaheed” and all mothers a song was played in their honor.

Sardar Latif Khan Khosa was invited for his address on the stage and he conveyed a Message that:

“The 52% of population of Pakistan is consist of women and they are fully devoted for their families to grow up their future. Out of these females the working women may work hard more by rendering their services to the national as well to their family. “Benazir Bhutto Shaheed” was the first woman from the Islamic country who becomes a President of country. As she served

Pakistan by her sincere services to explore the Pakistan on world level as well as she promoted her children as a mother also. She spend her entire life serving the nation and creed. I highly appreciate S. A Foundation for Women for organizing this event to pay regards to Benazir Shaheed and all other mothers. I also be glad about the struggle of Mrs. Naveed Anjum for humanity.”

In connection of messages, “Ms. Jenifer Larson” was also invited for her address, she says:

“I am thankful to Mrs. Naveed Anjum for inviting me here as it is pleasure for me that I am the part of those who are here to pay a regards to “Benazir Shaheed” and all mothers. Benazir was really a brave leader that she ends her life while serving the nation and she was also a great mother.”

Mrs. Naveed Anjum pays a bundle of thanks to all guests there and conveyed a message that:

“Being a mother it is very exciting, painful experience as well as it’s a God’s Blessing. When child born the first word he speaks that’s “Ma” even when the animal child born that speaks “Ma”. It is an unlearned behavior as the mothers love is intellectual and unconditional for her children. God has given much respect to the mother.

According to Islam “Paradise is under the feet of mother”. Today’s women is not weak she is working side by side with men in fields of education, business, industry and politics.

Here we must admire that the great leader “Mohtarma Benazir Bhutto Shaheed” fulfill her role was great as a women, mother & as a leader.

I congratulate all the mothers to recognize their role.”

Finally Mr. Sardar Latif Khan Khosa has presented the award “Mother of the Nation 2011” that was for “Benazir Shaeed”, on her behalf Ms. Faiza Malik received that award.
