

S. A Foundation for Women

Outstanding Academic Excellence Awards 2011

S.A. Foundation for Women's focused is to encourage the empowerment of women and to work for the welfare of disable children particularly their mothers since 1998. SAF is devoted to provide a platform to women to get training and implement it by practicing in a market to support their families. SAF is a non – profit charity organization u/s 2 (36) of the income tax ordinance, 2001; RP #:

RP/660/L/S/02 under Society registration Act 1860, Punch House, Lahore. The Special Children are our main focus and our programs include the formal schools from 1st to 10th grade, music teaching classes, educational seminars for their families and assistance during the disasters.

At completion of every session SAF celebrates the annual function to appreciate the position holders in class by giving them an award, that they can get motivated and can give better results next year.

At the end of session April 2010 – March 2011, SAF keep its sublimation retain and celebrated the event named “Outstanding Academic Excellence Awards 2011” on 26th March 2011 at Cultural Complex, Gadaffi Stadium, Lahore appreciate the position holders on their yearly performance.

This event was followed by the name of Almighty Allah, different tablos were performed by the students and a special performance was followed by the special ones also. In this event, blind performers Mr. Farukh Hussain Shah and Mr. Furqan Bobby performed via different musical instruments and given message to special ones that “Change your weaknesses to your strength”.

These poor and special students belong to those families where they have lack of basic needs and can't imagine attending this kind of elevated ceremony and getting a forum to perform; but S. A Foundation for Women respects every feeling of the humanity and given a chance to these deserving students to perform and enhance their extracurricular activities.

This event was graced by the presence of “Mrs. Musarat Sardar Latif Khan Khosa, Governor Punjab” as a “Chief Guest” and Mrs. Bushra Malik (Children psychologist) was also invited as Chief Guest. Mr. Munir A Malik (Adocate), Dr. Ehsan, Mr. Samuel Payara and other attended the said ceremony as a Guest of Honor.

Mrs. Musarat Sardar Latif Khan Khosa, Governor Punjab presented Awards to position holders and to Best Teachers of the year. She appreciated the students on getting awards and conveyed a message that “these special children are not disabling because they are created by Allah like that, we are disable persons that we cannot help and support these special ones”.

She also requested the affluent people via media that join S. A Foundation and help out these deserving students. Mrs. Musarat appreciated Mrs. Naveed Anjum (Chairperson SAF) and congratulates her for this step which is taken for the rehabilitation of special ones.

Mrs. Naveed Anjum also presented shields to Chief Guests that Mrs. Musarat Sardar Latif Khan Khosa, Governor Punjab” and Mrs. Bushra Malik (Children psychologist) for the commemoration of SAF.

At the end of this ceremony, keeping the sympathy for special ones, Mrs. Naveed Anjum appreciated the students and requested all the affluent people via media to come and join us, as yours modest help can change the life of any one of them. She also requested the parents of special ones to do not ignore them and try to behave with them normally and respect their feelings. To arrange this ceremony Mr. Saad Anjum, Mr. Umair Anjum, Miss Amber Choudhary and Miss Sobia Faisal have participated as coordinators.

SAF's Appeal!

The sole meaning of life is to serve humanity.

Individually, we are one drop. Together, we are an ocean.

Come and join us to help these special once as they are offing an abet.